

The End of Saint Paul's Year

“Saul, Saul why are you persecuting me?” Saul heard this voice when he was heading to Damascus to persecute Christians. From this moment, Saul turned into Paul, the Apostle of Nations. Pope Benedict dedicated the last year from June 28th 2008- June 29th 2009 to St Paul. Ecclesial and spiritual ceremonies were held all around the world celebrating the 2nd Jubilee after the birth of Paul.

Today, after the Pope declared the Priesthood Year, the Church ended this spiritual year with activities and ceremonies dedicated to St Paul in addition to the Divine Liturgies celebrated with his intercession.

Following up all activities dedicated to St Paul, Tele Lumiere and its satellite Noursat present ceremonies at the end of this Year, in addition to exclusive programs and documentaries.

It is important to note that Paris Cardinal Andre 23 who represented Pope Benedict will participate in the ceremonies that we will be broadcast on this occasion. He will arrive at Lebanon on Sunday June 28th and remains two days. During his stay, he visits the Maronite Cardinal Mar Nasrallah Boutros Sfeir and the Lebanese president Michel Suleiman. As well, he meets the Armenian Orthodox Patriarch Aram I Kichichian and Msgr. Elias Audi in addition to Sunni, Shiite and Druze spiritual leaders.
